Aloha Malana🌺

Thank you so much for doing this💜 Let me know if this is ok, I kinda went all over the place with it. If you need anything rewritten, taken out or added let me know, or you are welcome to edit it however you want😊

I was able to attend the second week of the defamation trial. What I witnessed was atrocious. The defendants used to court system to continue thier on going attack against Liana Shanti. They all lied under oath. The attorney was a wormy vulture saying to 'punish her', it was sickening. I've never seen such bad acting, fake tears and outright lies spewed out. It was a complete miscarriage of justice. Anyone who has experienced a narcissist attack, knows the depths they will go to, to distract from thier actions, to isolate you, to silence you, to turn everyone against you, to destroy you and anyone that supports you, to destroy your business, your reputation. To someone who hasn't experienced it, it sounds insane, but that is what they are insane sociopathic psychopaths. They think they are above the law, because they have been able to get away with what they do. By fear, intimidation, BRIBERY, manipulation, threats, using children as pawns and leverage, turning everyone against you, trying to destroy your hope, your Joy, your will to live, your reputation, your business, sources of income and financial abuse. Anything to get you to be silent and fall back in line or give up in defeat.

All Liana did was hear and believe a mother, Haley Winter, who shared her abuse and the abuse of her daughte at the hands of byron. She gave her a voice, a place to feel supported and safe. She held prayer vigils for her. Haley shared in her own Instagram stories about the abuse she experienced. I was in a signal prayer group created by Kathleen Melody/Ashwell that Haley was in, in December 2023, when this was all coming to head.

Abusers don't like being called out. They don't want to change, heal or stop what they are doing. They dig thier heels further into the ground instead of looking in the mirror and asking how did I get to this point? How can I change, grow, be a better person, make things right? Instead they double down on the abuse. In this case by proxy because of a woman who is a steadfast advocate for any type of abuse victims, especially woman and children - chose to believe this woman and stood up for her and her daughter against the scum of the earth.

Liana does not tell anyone what to do. She shares truths rooted in unconditional love. There have been multiple times I have read or heard Liana share not to do anything illegal. To follow the law and to act in integrity. Liana does not care what an individual does, that is your own responsibility with what you do with the truths she shares. Liana encourages everyone to go within, she is the one person in this world that encourages you to question everything, to learn to trust yourself, to trust in Jesus. That doesn't sound very culty to me🤷‍♀️ The truths she shares, you have within you, truths you can go into your own heart to feel. What Liana shares helps you remember what has been buried deep within you. Liana talks about a multitude of topics, some might be considered 'uncomfortable' that people might shy away from, wish to pretend don't exist in the world or be silent about. By talking about them she is bringing light to what was in the dark, because the dark cannot scurry around in the shadows anymore when a big bright light is shining on it. Liana is the first woman I have encountered that knows the power of her voice and she isn't afraid to use it. She leads by example in the most empowering way. She is THE most consistent person, she is the same all the time. She does not get 'angry' if you question her or do something she doesn't like. The lies spewed from Haleys puppeted mouth were despicable. A complete betrayal to the woman who loved, supported and BELIEVED her. She was strong for her when she wasn't for herself. Haley lied under oath and said Liana got angry at her, which is a lie. Haley lied under oath and said Liana called herself Jesus reincarnate. Mahina Kalea (now Christina) is the one that had said multiple times in groups and during a MMM live that she thought Liana was Jesus reincarnate. Liana has never in any way shape or form said she was. She is consistent as fuck in her teachings, her sharing of love and truth and that surrendering fully to Jesus is the way, the truth and the life.

One of the saddest parts was when she lied about her own daughters words and experiences of being abused by her father (which there is photos and video evidence). In that moment she not only betrayed Liana but her own daughter. She lied and said that bumpkin byron was a good father and that she was 'wrong' about where her daughters bruises came from. Someone who had multiple cps reports filed on him (pre Haley finding Liana). Being proud of being 'cleared' from cps, when you are a from a small town where I imagine people could be easily influenced to rule in your favor or be bribed isn't what you think it is and proves nothing. Especially when canadas cps only cares if there is food in the fridge for the children when they do welfare checks.

This whole charade is put on by abuser pedos trying to deflect and distract from thier own atrocities they have committed. Including the debunked false memory syndrome, which was created by a pedo to attack his daughter and discredit her from her speaking out about her own abuses she endured. Look a little deeper in Jennifer Freyd the daughter of Peter & Pamela Freyd, it is very enlightening and shows the depths and depravity these sick people will go to to hide what they have done.

During the trial what stood out to me was the confirmation that Haley and Amanda were liars. They were either lying then to Liana and a whole community of woman for years, singing the praises of Lianas healing work and programs, how much better thier lives had gotten on every level, accepting love, help, support and prayers and sharing the abuse they experienced or they were lying now, retracting what they said spinning a whole new web of lies. In Haleys case for her to have access to her daughter again she was presented with the option to cut ties to Liana, retract everything she said and fall back in line with her abusers and the final stab in the back was to go under oath and lie about her, when she should have been the one up there standing WITH Liana not against her. She is the reason Liana has to deal with any of these scumbags in the first place. Bumpkin byron wanted Haleys connection to Liana severed and he used thier daughter as a pawn to do it. Haley is a grown adult responsible for every choice she made, to put any of the blame on Liana is ridiculous and incredibly irresponsible.

Lianas advocacy, her strong empowered voice, her fearlessness and her multitude of healing programs has helped me immensely. Her willingness to not back down, to not be silent has empowered me to be strong in my own voice. I have learned to speak up for what is right, even if yours is the only voice in the room saying it.

Because of Lianas strong voice, empowerment and healing programs I was able to come forward and press charges against a 'man' who drugged and r*ped me as an adult. I learned to take my power back and to not let that experience define me and rule my life.

After it happened, I became a recluse, filled with so much anxiety, shame, fear and thoughts of unaliving myself. Even going to the grocery store was incredibly difficult during that time. This was when I was deep in the demonic new age reiki. On a night where I felt I could no longer go on, I messaged Liana asking if she could remove the reiki symbols from my field. She so graciously and generously did and that night she saved my life🤍 I am eternally grateful. Since being in Lianas community I have released so much shame, fear and anxiety, I am a completely different woman now than I was back then thanks to Liana and Jesus. I learned as a child to be a 'good' girl, to be silent, to keep the peace, to put up with abuse. This lead to being a door mat, people pleaser and to many abusive relationships. Lianas advocacy has empowered me to heal, to be courageous in facing my own trauma and abusers and to use my own voice, to not be silent in the face of darkness and instead expose them.

Liana stands for Truth, for Unconditional Love and for Jesus. This house of cards that this sick group has built on a foundation of lies & slights of hands has already crumbled. People are seeing the Truth.

People willingly choose to be in Lianas community, her programs and they are free to come or go. Hundreds and thousands of people sing her praises around the world, I think that's what gets under thier skin so much too, that no one will ever say that about them. None of them are having one ounce of positive impact on the world and they know it. They are surround by other low life's or people that give them what they want because they have a false sense of power or money being in a small town where people can be paid off, are scared of being on the opposite end of a narcissist attack or of rocking the boat.

Lianas voice is only get stronger and more amplified through this, everything they have tried to do to silence and intimidate her has the opposite effect. She is just getting louder, richer, reaching way more people, and she's uncovering what is at the bottom of this incestual bumpkin hole of horrors you are all so desperately failing at covering up.

I Stand with Liana
